

next monday

brings you

ladies2.0® LLN lunch, learn & network

connecting with intention

We each have a finite amount of time with which to connect – use it wisely.

keynote speaker TARA GRONHOVD

Tara (Tollefson) Gronhovd has almost 15 years of experience in "Connecting With Intention." From fundraising for the College of Saint Benedict, to owning The Buzz Company (a consulting company helping owner operated businesses to grow through word of mouth) to becoming the Vice President of Operations for Plaza Park Bank, Gronhovd has witnessed the amazing power of connections throughout her life and career. She has a passion for connecting people she meets to other people, ideas, opportunities and resources to help them move forward.

Tuesday, January 19, 2016

11:30 AM - 1:00 PM | St. Cloud, MN

The Tuscan Center Ballroom at Midtown Square

$25 per ticket

Successful people set goals in almost every area, but often overlook the one area that could be the most influential and make the greatest impact: relationships. If you have personal or professional goals it is inevitable that you'll need other people to help you along your journey. And, perhaps more importantly, there are ways you could be helping others on their journey. Let's go beyond networking and make our New Year's goal to Connect With Intention. This session will include take-home tools for you to become more intentional in the ways you connect with others.

Register at next-monday.com

Questions? Call 612.387.4681 or email
Michelle Pape at mpape@next-monday.com

Refunds are not available.

Sponsored by:

J. F. KRUSE
FINE AND CUSTOM
— JEWELERS —